NOTES.

(1) Said to have been granted by Segar to Sir Daniel Harvey, but which could not have been the case, inasmuch as the former died when the latter was only about two years of age; the misstatement probably arising from an entry of the blazon as belonging to Sir (?) Daniel being among the docketts of Segar's Grants at the College of Arms, which does not necessarily shew more than that he had some title to such arms. Moreover, the family previously bore the same quarterly with their ancient coat. So that, if by Segar, the grant must have been in confirmation only, and to some earlier member of the family.

(1A) The Parish Register not commencing until 1635, the dates of earlier burials at Folkestone cannot be ascertained therefrom.

(2) He had three sisters and a brother, all married and had issue. The brother's children were Thomas, Joane, and Elizabeth Harvey, all living 12 June 1623.

(3) The Pepperers' was the original of the Grocers' Company of London.

(4) So pronounced, and which would account for the hawks in the Family Arms.

(5) There, in the parish church, the inscription on the memorial brass quaintly describes her as a "godly harmles Woman, a chast loveing Wife, a charitable quiet Neighbour, a confortable frendly Matron, a provident diligent Hyswyfe, a carefull t'ederharted Mother, deere to her Hysband, reverensd of her Children, beloved of her neighbours, elected of God." This inscription many suppose to have been the veritable production of her son, the great physician himself, and that the brass was erected at his instance; but there is far more reason for believing that the same owe their origin to her husband, who was then living.

(6) As a mark of honour, and not for the study of the law. Brady (Visitor's Guide to Knole, 1839, p. 23), in referring to Thomas, 1st Lord Buckhurst's admission to the Inner Temple (temp. Eliz.), states that it was "then fashionable for every young man of fortune, before he began his travels, or was admitted into Parliament, to be initiated in the study of the law." The latter part of the statement is, however, incorrect. It was certainly customary in those days for elder sons of our gentle families to obtain formal admission to an Inn of Court, but if they went there it was more frequently only for social and residential purposes, to form acquaintances and friendships which might lead to their future advancement, and for an introduction to the world of London life: these Inns having apparently then occupied in a great measure the place of the modern West-End Clubs. And until recently comparatively few of those admitted to our Inns of Courts were called to the Bar.

(7) All burials named herein as "at Hempstead" were in the Family Vault beneath Harvey Chapel; those prior to 1766 being in the "outer," and subsequently in the "inner" chamber. Several of the coffins have, however, since been misplaced.

(8) It would appear from Payne-Fisher's Cat. of Tombs in London Churches, 1666, that there was a M.I. to Dr. Harvey "the [most] famous Physician of his time," and to his brother Daniel "of Folkston" in one of our City churches—probably St. Laurence Pountney—before the Great Fire. He also mentions another (in this, as in all instances, without naming the church) to "M^{rs} Mary Harvie, wife of the late Eliab H., Esq.; and both father and mother of the now Sir Eliab H., Knight-B[art.];" but which could not have been at St. Laurence Pountney, inasmuch as she not die until 1673, being buried with M.I. at Hempstead, and when the church in question was not extant. The reference, however, shews that the book was partly compiled, and issued, long after the date it bears.

(9) The compiler was among the select few present in the small Harvey Chapel on this memorable occasion, but took no part in the ceremony. And during his sojourn in the neighbourhood carefully copied, under great difficulties, the numerous coffin inscriptions in the family vault, as well as the monumental inscriptions and arms in the Chapel above, and (by kind permission of the Rev. Mr. Eustace, a relative of the family) the Harvey entries in the Parish Register, communicating the results, with copious notes, to the Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica (2nd Series, Vol. I., pp. 357—62 and 384—88). It may be here mentioned that, where differing from such previous notes, this genealogy should be taken as the most correct.

(10) It was, however (with the exception of the Codicil), evidently made some time previously, i.e. between 10 July 1651 and May 1655, when his brother Daniel's wife died—probably shortly after the former date. And was drawn by his "coosin" (nephew) Heneage Finch, afterwards Earl of Nottingham, and Lord Chancellor, to whom he therein bequeaths £100 "for his paines counsell and advice about the contriving" of it. It should be noted that nephews and nieces were at that time frequently also termed cousins—a fact the knowledge of which will prove alike interesting and valuable to Antiquaries, and clear up many a doubt, but which it is believed has never previously been mentioned in print.

(11) So borne on his monument at Hempstead.

(11A) The doctor's autograph is of extreme rarity, as the following note by a well-known authority in such matters, inserted in the Album Amicorum of Phillip de Glarges 1636-41, now in the Brit. Mus. (Add. MS. 23,105), and from which the Latin specimen facsimiled below, dated 8 May 1641, is copied, will testify: "No. 521 of the Sypistien Sale, where I bought it, principally because it contains the autograph of one of the most illustrious men that ever existed—Harvey, who discovered the Circulation of the Blood; and I never could find that his handwriting is to be seen anywhere else tho' I have inquired in all directions. D. T. [Dawson-Turner]." The volume, which formed lot 657 at the latter's sale, 10 June 1859, also contains another note, apparently by the same hand: "It has been commonly supposed that much of Harvey's autograph is to be found in the College of Physicians, or in Caius College, Cambridge, or in St. Bartholomew's Hospital; but I believe there is no authentic specimen of it in any of these; and the late Sir Henry Hallford told me, not long before his death, that, as far as he had been able to find, this is the only undoubted one in existence. Where is Dr. Paget's Letter to me about Harvey?" These authorities were, however, to a great extent in error, for not only is his signature to be found among the Rupert Correspondence in Brit. Mus. Add. MS. 18,980, fo. 125, dated 17 Oct. 1643, and from which our other specimen is copied, but his MS. on the circulation of the blood, now in the Sloane Collection, is holograph, as are undoubtedly also three of the four pages and the signatures of his will and codicil in P.C.C., for we have his own evidence therein to that effect; and the compiler, during many years spent in collecting literary rarities, has met with two other specimens of his signature.

(12) Her will was proved in Commissary Court of London 1608.

(13) The Parish Register of this date not being extant, it cannot unfortunately be ascertained whether the marriage took place at "St. Sepulchre's" as named in the Licence. Probably it did (although marriage licences were formerly comparatively seldom complied with in such respect), as both parties resided in the immediate neighbourhood, where, it should be remembered, the College of Physicians then stood. There is no record of the union in the Register of the adjoining Parish Church of St. Martin, Ludgate.

(14) There was a grant to him of a pension of £50 per annum on resigning his place of King's Footman to Toby Johnson, 6 July 1620.

(15) His will, dated 23 June 1636, was proved 22 Feb. following (P.C.C., Goare 14).

(16) Otherwise variously written Coom, Coomb, Comb, Combe Nevill, Combe Neoville, and Comb Park. This manor, which was purchased by Sir Daniel of Charles, Viscount Cullen, eld. s. of Sir Wm. Cokaine, c. 1652, and sold by the Harveys in 1753 to the Trustees of John Spencer, Esq. (then a minor, and afterwards 1st Earl Spencer), has been frequently confounded with Combe in Croydon, with which the family were also at one period connected.

(17) The earliest Harvey burial entered in Hempstead Burial Register, the same not commencing until April 1665.

(18) Their children at date of his will were Richard (? by his first wife), William, and Benjamin Steele.

(19) He was a Merchant as early as 6 Jan. 1638-9 (Lewes Roberts' Merchants Mappe of Commerce 1638), if not in 1637, and is probably identical with the John Harvey of London, Merchant, who was of parish of St. Andrew Undershaft, and buried at St. Helen's in the North Quire 24 Oct. 1701, leaving a wife Mary surviving—will dated 10 Oct. 1701, proved 10 Nov. following (P.C.C., Dyer 154). There was a John Harvey, Merchant, in Bishopsgate Ward 1640 (see the compiler's List of the Principal Inhabitants of the City of London, 1640, in Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica, 2nd Series, Vol. II., p. 37). And a John Harvey, Merchant, of Beerbinder Lane, appears in the first London Directory 1677.

(20) Sir Daniel and Sir Eliab Harvey were knighted same day by Charles II., on his first coming over. They, and Edward Harvey of Combe (who was not even knighted), have frequently been described in error as Baronets.

(21) Said by some English Historians to have been "sent" there as Ambassador, 13 Aug. 1668, which was probably the date of his departure from England. There is a copy of his commission in British Museum (Add. MS. 28,937, fo. 120).

(22) Then described as "of Parish of St. James's, Westminster." Below is a facsimile of her signature, 3 Aug. 1699, from Brit. Mus. Add. MS. 22,910, fo. 485.

CHarvey

(23) The Earldom of Nottingham has been united with that of Winchelsea since 1729, when, upon the death of John, 5th Earl of Winchelsea, unmarried, that title devolved on Daniel, 2nd Earl of Nottingham. This Daniel's next younger brother, Heneage, was created Earl of Aylesford 19 Oct 1714.

(24) She appears to have received from her father-in-law a marriage portion of £3000.

(25) The "anecdote" has been narrated by Hasted (History of Kent) and his copyists, but very incorrectly as to date and circumstances, and without the name of the husband. The secret marriage, which doubtless took place, appears to have been illegally dissolved.

(26) A lady of great personal beauty. Her monumental epitaph was written by Dryden. She had three daughters by her 1st husband, Sir Thomas Whitmore.

(27) By his will he directed a monument to be erected for him in Hempstead Church (then called a "Chapel"), after the model of that in Putney Church for Sir Tho. Dawes, at a cost not exceeding £100, and which monument was subsequently placed on the East wall of the Harvey Chapel, in compliance therewith.

(28) Entered in Parish Register of St. Giles as buried there 28 Nov. 1701.

(29) The marriage portion was £10,000, according to a letter of 20 July 1658, from Rachell, Lady Newport, to her brother Sir R. Leveson, in possession of the Duke of Sutherland. She resided in the house of her nephew, Nicholas Breton, at Norton, near Daventry, co. Northampton, after her husband's death.

(30) The earliest burial in the Harvey vault at Hempstead.

(31) She had licence (Fac. Off. Abp. Cant.) 5 July 1676 to marry Ralph Freeman (of Aspeden, co. Hertford), Bachelor, "aged about 10" (!), she herself being then but little over 8 years (!!). Doubtless the marriage never took place, and probably he died before her union with Eliab Harvey in 1680, when she was but 12½ years of age. And it appears from the entry in the Vicar-General's Book at Somerset House (fo. 410) as to her having been on examination 13 July 1681 found to be a virgin, and obtained licence to marry William Harvey, that such first marriage was not consummated. Her parentage, age, and marriage have hitherto been involved in much doubt and mystery.

(32) M.I. states in error "2 September."

(33) M.I. states "aged 48," but her coffin inscription "æt. 43," which is correct.

(34) By death of his elder brother Eliab he became eldest son and heir.

(35) In the room of Sir Henry Maynard, deceased.

(36) Died 25 Dec. (Gent. Mag.)

(37) The burial carelessly omitted in the parish register.

(38) She appears to have been his "pretty cozin Mistress Mary Harvey," his "wife's god-daughter," mentioned in will of Sir William Whitmore 12 Nov. 1695.

(39) She is described therein as "of Hamels in parish of Braughing, co. Hertford."

(40) Died 10 June. (Gent. Mag.)

(41) Berry (Essex Pedigrees) states 14 Aug.

(42) Died 25 April. (Gent. Mag.)

(42A) Entered R.N. 1769, and was in constant and active service in America, the West Indies, and the Channel for forty years. Particularly distinguished at the Battle of Trafalgar, where he commanded the Téméraire of 98 guns, Nelson's supporting ship. Dismissed the service, May 1809, but restored by an Order in Council, March the following year. With his death the family became extinct in the male line.

(42B) The latest burial in the Harvey vault.

(42C) Married 14 May. (Gent. Mag.)

(43) Born 8 Nov. (Gent. Mag.)

(44) Born 11 Aug. (Gent. Mag.)

(45) Niece of Thomas Grosvenor of Walthamstow, co. Essex, and Cavendish Square, co. Middx., Esq., M.P. for co. Chester.

(45A) In consequence of a fall from her carriage in Hainault Forest.

(46) Entered in Hempstead Burial Register as "Harriott" Harvey.

(46A) Horace Walpole describes him as "bred a Tory," but "very sensible."

(47) His will orders this to be done by his executors at a cost not exceeding £200. It was, however, carried out in his lifetime, two years subsequently.

(48) Died 10 Sept. (Gent. Mag.)

(49) Not entered in the parish register.

(50) Said to have died abroad, which would account for the delay in burial.

(51) They were a pattern of conjugal affection, and it is stated were entitled to, if they did not actually receive, the Dunmow fitch of bacon. (Gent. Mag., 1836, p. 550.)

(52) The manors of Clyfton Mabanke, Bradford, and Wyke were purchased by Eliab Harvey, of London, Esq., 3 Dec. 1649. The deed of feoffment, dated 26 Feb. 1649-50, from Henry Rogers of Canington, co. Somerset, Esq., and Edward Phillipps of Mountague, same county, Esq., granting the same with other lands adjoining, in consideration of £21,300, is in the compiler's possession. Hutchins' Dorset, however, gives the date of purchase of the first-named estate as "about 1660"—"from . . . Hungerford, by Michael Harvey." From the above-mentioned deed the facsimile of this Eliab Harvey's signature is taken.

(53) His will (an extremely long one), dated 5 Dec. 1657, was proved 29 April 1658 (P.C.C., Wotton 147).

(54) M.I. states in error "ob. æt. 50," whereas she is described in marriage licence (1664) as "aged 16." Her age at death was 69 or 70.

(55) He was godson to Dr. William Harvey, after whom he was named.

(56) "A weak man, strongly attached to the interest of the Stuart family." (Manning and Bray, Surrey, i., 402.) In a note to an entry of 20 May 1705 in Evelyn's 'Diary,' ed. Bray, he is termed "a violent Tory."

(57) His arms were: Argent, a chevron between three escallops sable.

(58) His arms were: Argent, on a chief gules two bucks' heads cabossed or.

(59) Then described as "of parish of St. Anne, Westminster." She mentions in codicil her "daughter Lady Hinchinbrooke," then living.

(60) Burke (Landed Gentry, 1886) gives her name as "Mary," in error.

(61) Intended to have been married to Rebecca Wolstenholme (afterwards his brother Michael's wife) had not death prevented.

(61A) He bore the ancient and modern family arms quarterly (as did Dr. Harvey), according to an impression of his armorial seal, impaling his wife's arms, on a deed, dated 25 March 1718, in the compiler's possession; and from which deed his facsimile signature is taken.

(62) The parish register states "buried 5 Dec. 1691," and the coffin inscription "deceased 1 Jan. 1691 [1692]." The date of burial having doubtless been entered in error for 5 Jan.

(63) Then described as "of Broad Street in the parish of St. James, Westminster, co. Middx."

(64) Coffin inscription gives her age incorrectly as "47."

(65) Died in his twenty-fifth year. M.I. states in error "aged 22 years." Not buried at Hempstead.

(66) Born 23 Dec. (Coffin and Mon. Ins.)

(67) She and her five sisters were coheiresses of their father.

(68) Not "Georgina," as sometimes stated.

Notes.

¹ The Harvey Chapel is a plain rectangular building of brick with high pitched tile roof, on the north side of Hempstead Church, adjoining and communicating with the chancel, and lighted by three large windows; and appears to have been erected about 1655 by Eliab Harvey, the merchant of London, together with the "outer" vault beneath, as a place of sepulture for his family. It is externally from north to south about 19 ft. 10 in. and from east to west 28 ft. 9 in., and divided by a wall into two apartments, one of which, on the east, was formerly used as a school, but now as a vestry room, and the western is the mortuary chapel proper. This latter, until lately enclosed with a chestnut screen and kept under lock and key, is, with a portion extending into the chancel, about 21 ft. 6 in. by 10 ft. 9 in., having the floor 2 ft. above that of the nave. The "outer" and original vault, which was formerly entered by stairs from the recess (8 ft. by 6 ft.) between Dr. and Capt. Edw. Harvey's monuments, but now, from outside of the church, is 24 ft. 6 in. by 17 ft., and 7 ft. 4 in. high; the "inner" one, built (as appears by an inscription cut in stone over the entrance) by Eliab Harvey of Claybury, in 1766, being 17 ft. 10 in. by 15 ft. 6 in., of similar height and arched with brick. They contain in all fifty-one coffins (including Dr. Harvey's, removed in 1883 to the sarcophagus in chapel above), fourteen of which are of lead, and mostly very curious, resembling Egyptian mummy cases in shape, and having raised letters, and masks of the features thereon. That of Eliz. Harvey, 1696, and all the subsequent coffins were of lead enclosed in wood, and are very similar to those of the present day.

² Second daughter of Eliab and Mary. Bapt. at St. Laurence Pountney, London, 11 Nov. 1642.

³ Fourth and youngest daughter of Eliab and Mary. Bapt. at Putney, co. Surrey, 2 June 1647.

⁴ The immortal discoverer of the circulation of the blood. Eldest son of Thos. and Joane. B. at Folkestone, co. Kent, 1 April 1578; bur. in "outer" vault 26 June 1657; re-interred in sarcophagus, provided by the College of Physicians, London, in Harvey Chapel above, 18 Oct. 1883.

⁵ Fifth son of Thos. and Joane. B. 26 Feb. 1589-90; mar. Mary, daughter of Fras. West of London, at St. Laurence Pountney, 15 Feb. 1624-5. Built the Harvey Chapel with "outer" vault beneath. (See note 1).

⁶ Second daughter of Sir Eliab and Dorothy. Bapt. at St. Peter le Poor, London, 19 Nov. 1661; ob. 4 Feb. 1664-5.

⁸ Fourth son of Danl. Harvey of London, Merchant, and of Combe, co. Surrey, and Eliz. Bapt. at St. Laurence Pountney 10 Nov. 1631; mar. Eliz., daughter of Edward, Lord Montagu; knighted at Canterbury 26 May 1660; Ambassador to the Porte, where he died c. April 1672, but not bur. here until 1 Oct. 1674. He had a Grant of Arms from Sir Wm. Segar: Or, on a chief indented sable three crescents arg. What is believed to be his coffin is of lead, but in a most ruinous condition.

⁹ Fourth daughter of Sir Eliab and Dorothy. Bapt. at All Hallow's Staining, London, 25 March 1673; bur. 29 Nov. 1677.

¹¹ Third daughter of Sir Eliab and Dorothy. Bapt. at All Hallow's Staining 27 Nov. 1671; bur. 15 Nov. 1686.

¹² Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Edward Harvey of Combe and Eliz. Bapt. at Kingston-on-Thames 20 Feb. 1681-2; bur. 22 Nov. 1686.

¹³ Second daughter of Edward Harvey of Combe and Eliz. B. 6, and bapt. at Kingston-on-Thames 13 Nov. 1684; bur. 5 Dec. 1691 according to the Parish Register, but this must be an error, as she did not die until 1 Jan. following.

¹⁴ Bur. 30 Jan. 1692-3.

¹⁵ Martha, sixth daughter of Edward Harvey of Combe and Eliz. B. 20 April, bapt. at Kingston-on-Thames 2 May 1691; bur. 8 April 1695. Not entered in Hempstead Register, but at Kingston-on-Thames as buried there.

¹⁶ Eldest daughter of Sir Eliab and Dorothy. Bur. 30 Jan. 1695-6.

¹⁷ Eldest son of Eliab and Mary. Bapt. at St. Laurence Pountney 3 June 1635; mar. Dorothy, daughter of Sir Thos. Whitmore of Apley, co. Salop, at St. Giles in the Fields, co. Midd., 7 Dec. 1658; knighted at Canterbury 16 May 1660; M.P., J.P., and D.L. co. Essex; entered in Burial Register St. Giles in the Fields as "carried away" 2 March 1698-9, and in that of Hempstead as bur. 14 following. The date 1695 is therefore incorrect.

¹⁸ Entered in Parish Register St. Giles in the Fields as bur. there 28, and at Hempstead 29 Nov. 1701.

¹⁹ Eldest son of Edward and Eliz. Bapt. at St. Bartholomew by the Exchange, London, 4 Dec. 1680; bur. 17 Feb. 1707-8.

²⁰ Second son of Wm. and Dorothy. B. 75 Nov. 1690; ob. of smallpox; bur. 29 March 1710.

²¹ Bapt. at St. Laurence Pountney 15 Nov. 1637; bur. 15 Feb. 1710-11.

²² Relict of her husband's brother Eliab, within five weeks of whose burial she obtained a licence (Bp. Lond. 14 July 1681) to re-marry the brother William, being described therein as "Dorothy Dicer alias Harvey, aged about 13 years and a widow," and the marriage took place at St. Martin Outwich, London, 1 Sept. following; bur. 10 July 1711. Monument in Harvey Chapel states in error that she married 2 Sept., and died aged 48. This and note 10 settle the vexed question as to her parentage, age, and marriage.

²³ Eldest daughter of Wm. Harvey of Winchlow Hall, Hempstead, and of Chigwell, and Mary; ob. an infant; bur. 23 May 1715.

²⁴ Fourth son of Eliab and Mary. Bapt. at Putney 30 June 1640; mar. Bridget, dau. of Sir Richard Browne, Bart., 1664; bur. 25 Aug. 1719.

²⁹ Eldest son of Sir Daniel and Elizabeth. Bapt. at St. Giles in the Fields 31 March 1658; mar. (1) Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Sir Eliab Harvey, at St. Peter le Poor 8 May 1679; (2) Elizabeth, daughter of Francis Newport, Earl of Bradford, and relict of Sir Henry Littleton, Bart., c. March 1700; (3) Mary, daughter of . . . Carteret, at St. Dionis Backchurch, London, 6 July 1725; ob. at Dunkirk. No entry of the burial in Hempstead Register. Large coffin, 6 ft. 8 in. long, 2 ft. 5 in. broad, and 1 ft. 2 in. deep.

³⁰ Of Winchlow Hall. B. 20; bapt. at St. Giles in the Fields 30 April 1689; mar. Mary, daughter and heir of Ralph Williamson of Bewick, co. Northumberland; bur. 3 Jan. 1742-3.

³¹ Eighth daughter. Bur. 13 July 1745. The age stated cannot be correct, as her mother died 15 Jan. 1695-6. (See note 16.)

³² Daughter of Sir John Wolstenholme, and wife of Michael Harvey of Combe and of Clifton Maybank, co. Dorset; bur. 26 Nov. 1747.

³⁸ Eldest son of Wm. Harvey of Winchlow Hall and Mary. B. 20; bapt. at St. Giles in the Fields 30 April 1689; bur. 18 June 1763.

³⁹ Daughter of Richard Benyon of Gidea Hall, co. Essex, Governor of Bengal, and wife of Eliab Harvey of Claybury. Bur. 14 Sept. 1765.

⁴⁰ Eldest daughter of Stephen Skinner of Walthamstow, co. Essex, and wife of Wm. Harvey of Winchlow Hall. Bur. 21 March 1767.

⁴¹ Second son of Eliab Harvey of Claybury and Mary. Bur. 16 April 1767.

⁴² Eldest son of Eliab Harvey of Claybury and Mary. No entry of the burial in Register.

⁴³ Second son of Wm. Harvey of Winchlow Hall and Mary. B. 23 May 1716; K.C.; M.P. for Dunwich. Bur. 6 Nov. 1769. Built the "inner" vault under Harvey Chapel. (See note 1.)

⁴⁴ Eldest daughter of Eliab Harvey of Claybury and Mary. Bapt. at St. Giles in the Fields 10 Jan. 1760; bur. 19 March 1778.

⁴⁵ Third son of Wm. Harvey of Winchlow Hall and Mary. B. and bapt. at Chigwell 17 Aug. 1718. No entry of the burial in Register.

⁴⁸ Third son of Eliab Harvey of Claybury and Mary. Bapt. at St. Giles in the Fields 26 Feb. 1765; ob. 15 April, but not bur. here until 2 Oct. following. The coffin, which is of enormous size (7 feet long, 2 feet 9 inches wide, and 1 foot 10 inches deep), is said to contain several coffins, and to have been smuggled over from abroad.

⁴⁹ Eldest son of Sir Eliab Harvey of Chigwell and Lady Louisa. Bapt. at Chigwell 25 March 1786; bur. 25 March 1794.

⁵⁰ Third and youngest son of Sir Eliab Harvey of Chigwell and Lady Louisa. B. 24 (not 23) Dec. 1801; bapt. at Chigwell 22 March 1802; ob. unmar.; bur. 11 March 1823.

⁵² Placed out of its proper order in the list, as there is neither inscription on the coffin nor entry of the burial in the Register, and the date has not been ascertained. Mon. in Harvey Chapel, however, records his burial here as son (third and youngest) of Wm. and Dorothy of Chigwell. He was b. c. 1691, and ob. probably young and before 1742.

⁵⁴ Should be Apley.

⁵⁵ Should be 43. (See note 22.)

⁵⁶ Should be 1 Sept. (See note 22.)

⁵⁸ Not buried here, but probably on the field of battle.

⁵⁹ A beautiful Gothic tablet, signed "H. Hopper, London." On north wall close by is the hatchment of this Sir Eliab.

⁶⁰ Should be fourth son.

⁶¹ And coheir.

⁶² Apparently ten children, viz., three sons and seven daughters.

⁶³ B. 24 Dec. (Par. Reg. Chigwell.)

⁶⁴ This appears to have been the sixth daughter, the seventh and youngest being Mary, mar. to Geo. Fane, Esq.

⁶⁶ The Register dates from 1664, but the earliest burial entry therein is dated 9 April 1665.
